

Marcel Rzepczynski has joined Sierra Holdings Group to form a new Eastern Europe and Russia research department section.

He will initially be responsible for staffing that section which, when formed, will be looking for exciting investment opportunities in that part of the world.

Sierra Holdings anticipates that the new section will open new areas with great potential to present to clients.

Look for future announcements.