

Because the employees and management of Sierra Holdings Group are aware that we are all involved in the global community, they have reached into their hearts and wallets and donated 20,000 Euro to the relief efforts in Thailand due to the floods.