

Once again, in spite of the continuing world economy negative outlook, Sierra Holdings continues to be upbeat.

This attitude is not formed in a vacuum. We just finished our most successful year yet and are proud that our clients have realized growth in their diversified portfolios with the help of Sierra Holdings experienced financial advisors.

We wish all of our clients and any potential new clients a happy and prosperous new year.